a thriving tech hub

Major tech companies have either expanded or increased their presence in Downtown Toronto, with a tech boom within a 3 km radius of Centricity.

strong rental upside

The Downtown Core and East Bloor have led the Greater Toronto Area's population growth due to higher concentrations of post-secondary students and young professionals. Toronto Metropolitan University will also need a substantial amount of student housing to meet the demands of 46,000 TMU's off-campus students. ⁽⁷⁾
